

CCSFX 2026

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL

The Parish Pastoral Council is a consultative body that shares in the pastoral mission of the Church by fostering the spiritual and temporal good of the parish community. The Council assists the Pastor in prayerfully discerning the guidance of the Holy Spirit regarding:

- Pastoral planning and priorities
- Evangelization and catechesis
- Parish ministries and initiatives
- Stewardship and outreach
- The building of a vibrant, Christ-centered community

The Council seeks to reflect the voice and wisdom of the parish, always rooted in fidelity to the Gospel, the Catholic faith, and the mission of the Church.

The Members of the Parish Pastoral Council are

Jeanne Blakeslee has belonged to the parish for 12 years. She is a lifelong teacher and school administrator, now retired. Married with three children (and four beautiful grandchildren), Jeanne is active in many areas of church life and, as a member of the Parish Pastoral Council, she sees the vibrancy of the parish community as key to its growth.

Pamela Du has been a member of CCSFX for 21 years. She and her husband of 38 years have one daughter, two sons, and two beautiful grandchildren. After 31 years of practicing dental hygiene, Pamela made a career change and became a full time MomMom to her grandchildren. Pamela is called to serve; her hope for serving on the Parish Pastoral Council is to voice the needs of her church family.

Debbie Hammel has been a parishioner of CCSFX since 2000 and a member of the Music Ministry since 2001. As Director of Human Resources, she helped her employers adapt to changing requirements of the business environment and balance those with the needs of the employees. She is excited for the opportunity to serve on the Parish Pastoral Council and looks forward to assisting with the growth and revitalization of our parish community.

Peter Fenwick has been a member of CCSFX for 16 years. He is a lifelong Catholic and has made a career as an executive in the automotive industry. He is currently Chair of the Finance Committee. He and wife, Amy, have two adult children. Peter believes that the Parish Pastoral Council will provide additional structure and continuity to CCSFX.

Joe Kufera is a longtime member of the parish, having joined in 1992. He recently retired as a biostatistician and injury researcher. Having seen both the highs and the lows of our church family, Joe hopes his many experiences as a lector, hospitality volunteer, and Marriage Preparation mentor with his wife Kay will help him to participate more fully as a Parish Pastoral Council member.

Ann Marie Labin has been a member of CCSFX for 6 years, immediately involving herself in a number of ministries. A retired registered nurse, her family includes two married children and five amazing grandchildren, 3 of whom she helps care for weekly. Ann Marie hopes that the skills learned as a former pastoral staff member will be helpful as to the Parish Pastoral Council and this welcoming, growing parish community.

Jim Momorella has been a member of CCSFX since 2000. He is a chemical engineer with skills in people and project management, strategic planning, and organizational development. Married with three children, Jim has two grandchildren. He hopes that the Parish Pastoral Council will enable the vision of Fr. Binoy and the people of the parish via evangelization and service and consistent with Catholic values.

Renee Murphy, a member of CCSFX for 15 years, has worked in customer service and supply chain for over 30 years. Retired from the military after 22 years in the Maryland Air National Guard, Renee was an Exec Officer and Service Flight Commander. A proud mother of 2 grown children, her vision for the Parish Pastoral Council is to foster spiritual growth so that at CCSFX parishioners have a deep sense of community.

Nick Russo joined CCSFX with his family in 2022, attracted by the warm hospitality, and eager to contribute. He worked in technology for 23 years until his promotion to stay-at-home dad. He hopes the new Pastoral Plan and Parish Pastoral Council will help focus the efforts of our community in discerning God's will and serving as the Hands of Christ.

Kathy Sack and her family have been parishioners of CCSFX since 2007 and she is deeply grateful for the life giving, faith filled friendships that have developed over the years through her involvement in various parish activities. A trained nurse, she is hoping to foster a shared journey of our beautiful Catholic faith. As a member of the Parish Pastoral Council, Kathy looks forward to helping the council serve the needs of the church community.

Marce Scarbrough and his wife Elizabeth have belonged to the parish for 26 years. An IT Director for a Baltimore non-profit, he previously served on technology teams for the Archdiocese of Baltimore and the Governor's Office of Crime Control. Having been involved in Bible study and the Mission and Planning Committee, Marce is dedicated to the parish's long-term vision and spiritual growth.

John Young has belonged to the parish for 9 years. He has worked in IT for the past 35 years, the last 20 of which have been in senior leadership. Married with two children, John can most often be found serving as an usher at mass. His hope for the Parish Pastoral Council is to bring more young adults into our faith community.